
Miami Postcard

How would you describe Miami to someone who has never visited the city?

Miami is easily accessible by land, sea, and sky through airports, seaports, and highways and draws more and more visitors with its booming tourism industry. Miami's largest airport, Miami International Airport (MIA) is among the busiest airports in the world with over 100 airlines flying to and from approximately 150 destinations around the globe. Locals and visitors embark on ships daily through PortMiami, the bustling seaport located in Biscayne Bay. Miami's geographic location and cruise industry position the city as a point of connection to other destinations in the Caribbean and Latin America.

What you'll need:

- Markers or crayons
- A stamp

Instructions:

- Use the postcard provided in your activity bag.
- Design a postcard that depicts all of the things that draw visitors to Miami.
- Don't forget to stamp and mail your postcard once you're done!

CultureFest 305 is presented with the support of the National Endowment for the Arts, Jackson Health System, Miami-Dade County Department of Cultural Affairs, and the Cultural Affairs Council.

HistoryMiami Museum is accredited by the American Alliance of Museums, and is an active member of the Florida Association of Museums. We are supported by the Miami-Dade County Department of Cultural Affairs and the Cultural Affairs Council, the Miami-Dade County Mayor, and the Board of County Commissioners. Support is also provided by the State of Florida, Department of State, Division of Arts and Culture and the Florida Council on Arts and Culture.